Committee Reports

Report of the House Committee

The House Committee met on Thursday, May 6th. The second and third Wednesdays beginning in July will feature Tacos and other foods. Our 4th of July BBQ will be held on Saturday, July 3rd. The annual Shrimp Boil has been moved to August 14th. Sunday June 20th, Fathers Day, breakfasts will be half price for fathers.

Remember our National Home

Our National home was remembered at 1033 hours.

Unfinished Business

There was no unfinished business.

New Business

Paul Cline nominated Roger Loiselle to serve on the House committee. Roger accepted. It was moved by Paul Cline and seconded by Monica Eroh that we have Roger Loiselle serve on the house committee. No were questions the motion passed.

Paul Cline nominated Jeff Simmons to become Post Chaplin replacing Monica Eroh. The motion was seconded by Dave Spensley. Call for discussion, there was none. The motion passed.

Good of the Order

Monica Eroh resigned her elected position as Post Chaplin and thanked the Post to have served in this capacity over the past year.

Dave Barr announced that the sales tax refund was approved and a check will be received soon.

After 13 years of providing a student scholarship donation in honor of Rocky Walgren, the Post officers committee recommended we discontinue any further scholarship donations due to budget restrictions and lower operating revenue and use what money is available for veterans in need. Roger Loiselle has presented a check to the Vista High School for $500 in early June for this years fund in Rocky's name.

Paul Cline made a motion we donate $100 to the Vista Storm soccer team. Motion was seconded by Roger Loiselle. No further discussion, motion passed.

The regular business meeting closed at 1048 hours.

The next regular meeting will be held on Saturday, 10 July 2010 at 1000 hours.

Respectfully submitted,

David Spensley
